European Echoes.
In England we see as usual, in the pursuit of all her great schemes for the improvement of her people, a happy freedom from that constant dread of war which paralyzes the progress of the principal continental powers. While in England the greatest activity prevails, in extending her industrial pursuits, removing obstructions in the way of commerce, and improving the moral and social conditions of the masses, the other great powers are again talking war, and many leading authorities seem to think it inevitable before the end of autumn. What it is to be about, or where it will commence, however, it does not seem to be obvious. Although upon the whole our own country may be congratulated, there are some smaller things coming to the surface that are not altogether agreeable to contemplation. First and foremost of all is, that Her Majesty does not possess the same hold upon the people that she formerly had. It cannot be denied that independent of the dissatisfaction felt at her long and continued seclusion, a strong feeling has sprung up in reference to the support she is supposed to have given Disraeli during the discussion of the Irish Church. Fortunately she begins to appear in public a little more than hitherto, and we think it will still be found that, that noble mind and generous spirit which has guided her safely along for so many years, will continue to do so to the end. Another black spot is the total change coming over English women concerning their political rights. The "Woman's Suffrage" question is driving all classes into its horrid vortex. Even Florence Nightingale, whom we have all hitherto looked upon as the embodiment of human virtue, and feminine grace, has joined the misguided people who form the "English National Society for Women's Suffrage." It would do for the men to pooh-pooh this thing any longer, as a mere caprice, that will die of its own accord after a time, because it daily assumes an aspect more alarming to those who cherish the recollection of the social charm of England's society. Already one lady has been escorted with a sort of public triumph to the polling booths in Manchester and recorded her vote under the new Registry Act in favor of a liberal candidate; and no fewer than six others have been elected on parochial boards, of all things in the world in different parts of the country. In the neighbourhood of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, there is a religious movement going on which is entirely in the hands of women. They go about preaching among the lower classes, and manifest the greatest enthusiasm. Amongst these is a Miss Wilson, who is described as being very pretty, with a winning charming way, and gaining much reputation as a pulpit orator. Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. McLaren, whose husbands are both members of Parliament, and Miss Taylor, a relation of Mr. Mills, all declare in public that before the next Parliamentary movement occurs, public opinion will universally endorse the enfranchisement of woman. They have, however, all one great fear; and that is that George Francis Train will presently appear in England and become the champion of their cause. If Train would ruin it we must all pray devoutly that he may appear without delay. Our readers must not imagine we are overdrawing the picture of this movement, for we are not by any means. From all we gather we look upon that pre-eminence which English society, through the influence of English women, has always maintained, to be in great danger. It is not, in our opinion, a mere question of roast beef and plum pudding; it goes vastly further than that, and saps the foundation "of those happy homes of England" the loveliness of which Mrs. Hemans sang and Victoria has since made sacred. The political aspect of the country is not altogether free from disquietude. The Government after mature deliberation have determined not to resign without a dissolution. Whatever there is of a crisis it offers great constitutional anomalies. Unquestionably the constituencies by which the present Parliament was elected are altered; new ones have to be called into existence, and the electoral condition of Scotland and Ireland has to be determined. As neither party can claim really to represent the present electoral status of the Kingdom, the Government maintains the right of dissolution. The House of Commons must soon solve the question, for it alone can do so; but if a general election be resolved upon it will produce one of the most severe contests known for years. The House of Lords has taken another step in that silent revolution which is so rapidly transforming the British monarchy into a strictly popular government. The Peers, after a long and able debate, have abolished the system of voting by proxy. This ancient privilege, we all know, has been practiced from time immemorial; and more than once, when a great measure has been supported by a large majority of the Peers present, it was unexpectedly defeated in the end by the proxies of absentees drawn from the pockets of the minorities. The system no doubt was a gross outrage on legislation, and by abolishing it the Lords have gained no little credit and honor. It was a privilege which made hereditary legislators more obnoxious to the country than any other they enjoyed; the people rightly demanded its abolition, and the Peers in letting it go have gained power by showing they can be just.

The British Mission in Abyssinia.
Napier's Great Victory.

[From the London Times of April 27th.]
King Theodore is dead. The captives have been rescued. The British loss was about ten wounded. The army will return immediately. Never, surely, in the history of war has there been an expedition undertaken with such reluctance, planned with such precision, and perfected with such despatch and completeness as that over the success of which England will all day rejoice. Sir Robert Napier might write with Caesar, Veni, Vidi, Vici. On Good Friday he had brought his forces within ten miles of Magdala. The enemy was in force, and posted in a very strong position. Their camp was visible on a precipitous height. The natural ravines they commanded had been made more difficult of approach by escarpments, and it was doubtful in what way the attack would begin. The enemy opened the battle. They attacked the First Brigade, but were repulsed with great slaughter, and the moral effects of the defeat were even more important than its immediate result. The next day King Theodore tardily offered to treat, but was even then unwilling, as it would seem, to acknowledge the hopelessness of his position. An unconditional surrender of all the captives was demanded, though it was indeed feared that the English prisoners had been killed. On that day, however, and the next, Theodore sent into the British camp every European in his power, both the captives and artificers, but still declined to surrender himself into Sir Robert Napier's hands. Twenty-four hours were given him to decide, and, still resisting, Magdala was stormed on Easter Monday, this day fortnight. The assault was conducted under cover of the Armstrong steel-guns, the 8-inch mortars, and the rocket battery, and was completely successful. It is indeed true that by that time the Emperor seems to have lost all command over the mass of his forces. The most formidable position without the city had been surrendered, and the Abyssinians had laid down their arms by thousands, but Theodore was still resolute, and a band of faithful adherents still defended him. It was in vain that he fought against impossibilities. If we may credit one account, it would appear that in the decisive moment of his fate he was not unmindful of his imperial pretensions. This willfulness of the man was manifested even then. He killed himself with his pistol as the British troops approached him, and thus escaped indignities which his own practices presented to his imagination. Other despatches simply say that he was killed, for his dead body was recognized by those who had lately been his prisoners. With his death the war terminated. The captives had been released. The tyrant had spared us all pains of considering what punishment should be inflicted for his contumacy. Sir Robert Napier was preparing to march homeward with the record of his victory.

The suddenness, the decisiveness of his success—and absolute extinction of Theodore and his power—cannot surprise us. If once our soldiers were confronted by the enemy, the result was certain. The contest between an English army with English arms, and an Abyssinian force of untrained, if gallant men, was seen to be, and in fact was so hopeless, that not even the thoroughness of the triumph should tempt us into mere exultation over the enemy. Our 12 pounder Armstrong guns silenced his artillery. Our disciplined men could find no foe worthy of their training among his followers. We need not boast that "our Chassepot did wonders." The special merit of the Abyssinian campaign was not that it was a victory over Abyssinians, but a victory over Abyssinia itself. Nature fought against us, and our science and our organization defeated this worst of antagonists. The greater part of the long march from Annesley Bay to Magdala has been brought before us so vividly by our correspondents that the English nation has been able from first to last to accompany the army in its difficulties. Is it too much to say that nothing like it has been attempted, much less accomplished, since Saurwald led his forces over the St. Gothard, or are we too vain in remembering that his wild struggle with the adverse powers of nature was provoked by the direst of labors of our Abyssinian Expedition? Sir Robert Napier has had to pick out his way and to make his road over almost every inch of his march. The last letters from the camp, which we print to-day, tell the same story we have received throughout, of toilful advance up precipitous cliffs, over mountain heights, along narrow ledges of rocks overlooking yawning ravines. They add the pains of intense cold at heights 12,000 feet above the sea level. Even when these obstacles seemed for a moment to have been passed, an inhospitable wilderness has commonly succeeded, soon to give way to Alpine passes. That there should have been occasional defaults of one of the other branches of the service on such a march cannot be surprising; the wonder is that any successful organization should have been continuously possible. We may well be proud of a General who could plan and conduct an expedition like this, and of any army that could be trusted to respond to the spirit of its leader. We can understand and sympathize with the nervous anxiety felt by the whole force as it neared Magdala lest Theodore should retire and attempt to wear them out in endless pursuit of him and his captives. Well-accredited rumors had predicted such tactics. But Theodore had sworn that "though all his other soldiers should fly, he and his standard-bearer should alone face the British," and to do him justice, he kept his oath. It is, indeed, impossible, viewing him in his last hour, not to feel some pity for the man who has compelled us to crush him. In his wildest freaks of passion, even in his savage brutalities, there was a singular consistency. He was the stuff of which many a Eastern conqueror has been made. Endowed with intense personal will, great courage, and wide designs, he was yet incapable of self-control, and wholly unable to understand the power of a civilization higher than his own. Unhappily for himself he provoked a conflict with the arms of the West; he was unjust, and violent and cruel in his injustice to unoffending subjects of the British Crown, he put our messengers of peace in chains, he misunderstood our forbearance, he challenged us to vindicate the wrongs he had inflicted, and he was the cause of this self-proclaimed descendant of Solomon that, passionate and resolute to the end, he still fought when fighting was hopeless, and, as we may believe, preferred to die by his own hand rather than fall under the vengeance of an unknown enemy.

The army will return immediately. The simple statement with which Sir Robert Napier closes his telegraphic despatch announcing the victory, is the best commentary that can be made upon our motives in entering upon the Abyssinian war. The speedy withdrawal of the force from Abyssinian territory will be a complete answer to the insinuations of foreign states. The death of Theodore will relieve us from all embarrassment in performing what must in any case have been an inevitable duty. As it is, our mission in Abyssinia has been completely accomplished. We have redeemed the emissaries of the Crown, and with them all European captives, from the painful slavery experienced. The single author of all the mischief—the only person with whom in Abyssinia we had any quarrel—has put it out of our power to punish his misdeeds by challenging inevitable, if not inflicting voluntary death. We can then withdraw without hesitation, for we have done all that was ever designed. We can even withdraw our power without compunction, for we are relieved from all apprehension that we leave behind us a nation doomed through our innocent instrumentality to suffer the wild revenge of a defeated madman. It is, of course, true that we shall leave Abyssinia disorganized; but the disorganization of Abyssinia is unhappily chronic, and there is now a better prospect that it may soon terminate than has long been known. We have neither caused nor aggravated the disorders of the country. We entered it because its ruler, in defiance of the simplest dictates of natural justice, refused to liberate envoys sent to him on a message of peace. We have liberated them, and he has himself perished, and, our mission over, we leave again the land we entered with the sole purpose of performing it.

Canada, May 8th.

A terrible tornado swept over the townships of Stanley and Goderich on 5th May last, damaging and destroying a vast amount of valuable property. A Mrs. Campbell, in trying to save her children, was seriously hurt, as the chimney and other portions of her house were blown down. It is thus described: A violent hail storm commenced, which continued for some time, during which hail stones, or rather icicles, fell, measuring one and a half inches in diameter and two and three inches long, to a point near the river. It was during this storm that a mighty rushing sound was heard, in a south-west direction across the lake, and turning the eyes in this direction a spectacle awfully grand and sublime presented itself. Around what looked like a dense, black, spiral column of smoke, balloon shaped, being larger at the top than the bottom, the clouds were whirling and clashing with a fury and violence utterly indescribable, the tail of which would ever and anon lash and writhe, like a monstrous serpent, its head being directed at the abode. Accompanying this, but a comparatively short distance above it, was a large dense black cloud, but which did not appear to be in such violent commotion, although it too would frequently part asunder and then immediately clash together again in awful grandeur.

Mrs. McGee is in a very precarious state of health. The sad bereavement which she has experienced has induced a state of nervous prostration which her physicians regard as very serious. So greatly is she affected that she is never left alone, and for some days it was feared that her reason could hardly bear up against the calamity which had befallen her. We are glad to hear that though still far from well, Mrs. McGee is gradually becoming convalescent.

The boring for salt at Kincairdine Works is progressing favorably, the company having reached a depth of fifty-five feet.

The schoolboys in Montreal, on their way home, ate some wild prairie growing along the railway track last Wednesday. Two of them, brothers, named Day, died that night, and it is feared that others will die.

SCIENTIFIC EXPLORATION OF MOUNT BAKER.
Mr Coleman, of this city, formerly a member of the Alpine Club, and whose book is an authority on Alpine scenery, intends to attempt once more the ascent of Mount Baker, in August. When upon the mountain in 1866 he perceived a path to the summit which this year he intends to take. He proposes to form a party, which Rev Mr Somerville and Mr Alston we understand have consented to join, and it will be a good opportunity for others who have any interest in this scientific exploration.

Sir Robert Napier has been gazetted a Grand Cross of the Bath, a distinction which he ought to have had years ago for his services in China. Of course the gracious consideration of the Crown will not stop with this. It is we believe unusual to confer hereditary dignities without consulting the wishes of those upon whom it is proposed to confer them, and should there be no objection on his part we have little doubt Sir Robert will be made a baronet with the usual pension of £1000 a year, for three lives, being added to the distinction.

By a private letter from Abyssinia we learn that during the latter part of the advance on Magdala, the comforts of the officers were restricted to Spartan proportions. The rations per day consisted of 1 lb of meat, 1 oz. of tea, 2 oz of compressed vegetables, and water. No grog or tobacco. The climate is represented as bitterly cold; but notwithstanding that the warm clothing had been left behind in consequence of the necessity of discarding everything in the nature of a superfluity, all were in good spirits as well as health.—A & N Gazette.

The Ottawa Times is authorized to state that E. R. Burpee will make an offer to the Government, in a day or two, to locate, construct, and equip the whole line of the Intercolonial Railway, by the North Shore route, for the lump sum of $14,600,000. If his offer is accepted, he will be prepared on the opening of the season to place two thousand men at work on the road. It is currently rumoured that Mr Walter Shanly is to be Chief Engineer on the Intercolonial Railway.

According to late accounts, appears to be getting from bad to worse. Most of the recent papers on speaking of her internal condition are full of such expressions as, from bad to worse—brigandage, defenceless condition of the people, terrible atrocities, execution, outrages, conspiracies and so forth, ad nauseam. Indeed unless a man is in very robust health, it is more than his nerves can stand to read even the headings of current articles upon this beautiful but unhappy and unfortunate country.

LONDON HOUSE,
Victoria, V. I.
FENIAN RAID.—Canada is now thoroughly aroused to the threatened attack. The Toronto Globe says it has information that it may take place any day after the 20th inst.
With General Grant at the head of the American army, however, it will be very strange if he allows his country to be disgraced by being used for the convenience of these silly beings. If he does it will go a long way towards settling the Alabama claims, and the English Government ought to say so at once.

THE DOMINION SAVINGS BANK.—It is very gratifying to learn from so many sources, says the Quebec Gazette, that the Savings' Bank recently established in connection with the Post Office department is meeting with encouraging success. In every city and large town in the Dominion, as we hear, deposits were made on the very first day, and before the first four days were over, quite a large sum had been received.

It is said there are two things in the present day dearer than life, and those two things are fashionable marriages and fashionable funerals.

ing liquor to an Indian, fined $50 or three months, himself in $100 and two sureties in $50 each; in default of bail to receive one month's imprisonment. Henry Neale for assaulting his wife; remanded for two days.

Richard Morgan, for assault, on bail for $25.
NAVAL.—The command of the gunboat Forward, in lieu of Commander Denny, who returns to England, having received his promotion, has been given to Lieut. T. H.
Larcom, who arrived by the California on Sunday. Mr Denny, during his comparatively short stay amongst us, has succeeded in gaining the esteem and friendship of all with whom he came in contact.

SAD ACCIDENT.—A little child of Mr Haynes, James Bay, about 16 months old, was taken out on Sunday evening by an elder brother to play in the yard. In a few minutes Mrs Haynes inquired after the child to put it to bed, but it could not be found.
After a long and anxious search, the well was thought of, and in it the poor child was found dead. It is said he must have been in the water fully an hour.

THERE have been eleven beautiful pearls exhibited in Melbourne lately, varying in size from the smallest shot to the largest pea.
These pearls are found in Western Australia, where a fleet of small vessels is employed by the fishers. According to present expectations they are likely to be found in quantity and form quite a feature in the exports of Australia.

mings, Flowers, Ornaments, and of the miscellaneous articles for ladies' wear required during the present season.

THE LATE HON MR MCGEE.—It is a very singular circumstance, says the London Free Press, that on the very day that Mr. McGee was martyred for his adherence to law, order and country, Mike Murphy, of Toronto, the father of Fenianism in Canada, should have been on his death-bed, an exile, at Buffalo.

STEAMER CALIFORNIA.—This vessel will leave this morning for Port Townsend and return in the evening. It is intended at present to dispatch her so early on Thursday morning for San Francisco that passengers going down by her would do well to be on board by Wednesday night.

AUCTIONER'S SALE.—This morning Mr McCREA will sell at eleven o'clock the household furniture of Messrs McCutchan & Callingham at their residence, Fort Street.
The articles to be sold are all of superior character.

The steamer Isabel arrived late last night from Burrard Inlet. She reports work progressing well at the mills. At Capt Stamp's taken on board some 800,000 feet since the 1st of the month.

The Prince of Wales seems to have given great satisfaction in Ireland to the masses so far as he came in connection with them, and it is confidently expected that his visit to the Green Isle will be productive of much good.

ARRIVED.—The ship Chelsea, from San last night and the sea so rough that H M S Forward, on her return from San Juan, was compelled to anchor at Cadboro Bay.

In Quincy, Ill., an eagle swooped down upon a baby that had been left alone on the river bank by its mother, and carried it away, and it has not since been seen.

REVERDY JOHNSON goes to England to accomplished by these Pills, and gratefully acknowledged by most flattering testimonials.

They secure a long, a healthy, and a happy life. In all derangements of the digestion arising from the MONTREAL, June 12—Arrangements are being made by the military authorities for the concentration of troops at Richmond, in the province of Quebec.

MONTREAL, June 12—A seizure of arms at St. Albans yesterday by the United States Government is reported. Guards are established on the Grand Trunk; brigades well armed guard the stations at each end of the Victoria Bridge. The 53d regiment has been ordered to leave London on the 15th for Quebec.

TORONTO, June 12—The Globe professes to have information, on authority beyond dispute, that the Fenian movement upon Canada has actually commenced, and that their forces are being gradually concentrated at Buffalo and other points.

Forty Fenians went from Port Huron to Buffalo via the Grand Trunk Railroad on Tuesday. A raid is possible any day after the 20th inst. The Globe calls on the Government to order into the field at once the whole volunteer and regular force of the country.

BUFFALO, June 13—Reports from Canada have gained circulation to the effect that the Fenians are concentrating at this point for a raid on the neighboring provinces. It is proper to contradict such statements; no unusual gathering of Fenians has occurred here, and it is not believed there is a single member of the organization outside of the citizens of Buffalo here; the sensational reports probably originated with Canadian speculators interested in contracts for supplying troops.

TORONTO, June 14—Despatches from Montreal say that officers of the United States army are said to be on the frontier between Rouses Point and Ogdensburg, with instructions from Grant to ascertain the correctness of the report, that Fenian arms are being secreted there.

BOTHWELL, June 13—A party of volunteers returning from drill last night were attacked by men supposed to be Fenians.
One of the volunteers is not expected to live an unsuccessful attempt was made late at night to break open the sheds and get the the arms.

Alfred third.

WASHINGTON, June 12—The President today nominated Reverdy Johnson as Minister

WASHINGTON, June 12—In the Senate, Morton, from the Committee on Foreign affairs, reported a joint resolution requesting the President to intercede with the Queen of Great Britain to secure the immediate discharge of Rev. John McMahon, now confined at Kingston.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES.

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary, 616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR Commercial, San Francisco, Established in forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully cured.

Dr. Gibbon has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned to this State, after an absence of one year during which time he visited all the principal Hospitals of Europe, among them those of Dublin, London and Paris. The following celebrated Hospitals of London are among those visited by the Doctor: Guy's, High Street, Borough; St. Bartholomew's, Smithfield; St. Luke's, Old Street; St. Mary's, Camb. Place, Pad.; Lock, Harrow Road; University, Gower Street; Westminster, Broad Sanctuary; Charing Cross, Agate Street, Strand; London, Whitechapel Road; Royal Free, Gray's Inn Road; King's College, Portugal Street.

Dr. Gibbon has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of sexual indulgence, the system absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces, and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them from the happiness of marriage or of the enjoyment of life. In this horrible situation, thousands rather than death choose the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible, life-destroying maladies, and that they are careful, and cured before it is too late. Send them immediately to Dr. Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his special study for years, who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases of venereal mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who advertise in the papers, publishing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful, and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with varying certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless counteracted by scientific medical measures, viz.: Salivary contumency, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rattling of leaves and rattling of chariots, weakness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, convulsed vision, blue ed. i. intellect, loss of confidence, inability in approaching strangers, a desire to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, frequent colds, field breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. Gibbon will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

Persons afflicted with these terrible diseases, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them not to delay to obtain immediate relief.

Dr. Gibbon is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

Cured at Home.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon stating cases, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicine promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use. By enclosing $15 in currency or $10 in bank notes, a registered letter through the Post office or through Wells Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded by express to any part of the Union.

Address T. J. E. Gibbon, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial & 2nd streets, San Francisco, Cal. First office box 252. Remember to put BOX 252 on the letter.

Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform Dr. Gibbon that they read his advertisement in the British Colonist.

SIXTH INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION

—OF—

The Mechanics' Institute,

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS of the Mechanics' Institute hereby give notice that the Sixth Industrial Exhibition of that Association will be held some time in August next, in the building erected for the purpose in Union Square in this city. Every preparation will be made to accommodate exhibitors and visitors with a view to make the Exhibition profitable, instructive and pleasant to all parties. During the three years which have intervened since the holding of the last Exhibition in this city the manufacturing, mechanical, scientific and useful and ornamental arts have made unprecedented progress on this continent, and it is believed that the proposed Exhibition will exceed any other in value that has ever been held on the shores of the Pacific.

The plan of building to be erected, which has been adopted by the Board of Directors, it is believed will prove to be the best adapted, both for display and convenience of the public, of any building erected on the continent. The building will be perfectly water tight, being covered with a single roof, so that no damage from the elements can be anticipated.

All parties who are interested in any of the branches of Manufactures, Mechanics, or the Arts and Sciences are invited to exhibit in the proposed Exhibition, and to share in the publicity and consequent profit which always attends such enterprises. Suitable premiums will be offered, and the specific date of opening the Exhibition will be published at some future time.

French Medicines,

PREPARED BY

GRIMAULT & CO.

Chemists to H.I.P. Prince Napoleon, PARIS.

These different medicines represent the most recent medical discoveries, founded on the principles of Chemistry and Therapeutics. They must not be confounded with secret or quack medicines, as their names suffice only indicate their composition; a circumstance which has caused them to be appreciated and prescribed by the Faculty in the whole world. They widely differ from those numerous medicines advertised in the public papers as able to cure every possible disease, as they are applicable only to but a very few complaints. The most stringent laws exist in France with regard to the sale of medical preparations, and only those which have undergone an examination by the Academy of Medicine and have been proved efficacious, either in the hospitals or in the practice of the first medical men, are authorised by the Government. This fact must be a guarantee for the excellence of Messrs. Grimault et Co.'s Medicines.

Grimault's Syrup of Iodized Horse Radish.

This medicine has been administered with the utmost success in the Hospitals of Paris. It is a perfect substitute for Cod Liver Oil, and has been found most beneficial in Diseases of the Chest, Scrofula, Lymphatic enlargement, Glands, Muscular Atrophy, and all kinds of debility.

It purifies the blood, it being the most powerful depurative known. It has also been applied with happy results in Diseases of the Skin. Further, it will be found to be of great benefit to young children subject to Hamors and Obstructions of the Glands.

CONSUMPTION CURED!

Grimault's Syrup of Hypophosphite of Lime.

This new medicine is considered to be a sovereign remedy in case of Phthisis and other Diseases of the Lungs. It promptly removes the most serious symptoms. The cough is relieved, night perspirations cease, and the patient is rapidly restored to health.

N.B.—Be sure to see that the signature of Grimault & Co. is affixed to the bottle, as this Syrup is liable to imitations.

NO MORE DIFFICULT OR PAINFUL DIGESTION!

DR BURIN DU BUISSON'S

(Laureate of the Paris Imperial Academy of Medicine)

DIGESTIVE LOZENGES

This delicious preparation is always prescribed by the most reported medical men in France in cases of derangement of the digestive organs, such as Gastralgia, Long and Laborious Digestion, Wind in the Stomach and Bowels, Emaciation, Jaundice, and Complaints of the Liver & Lungs.

Grimault's Guarana.

This vegetable substance, which grows in the Brazils has been employed since time immemorial to cure Inflammation of the Bowels. It has proved to be of the greatest service in cases of Cholera, as it is a preventive and a cure in cases of Diarrhoea.

NO MORE COPAIBA OR CUBERS!

Grimault's Capsules and Liquid Extract of Matico Vegetalis.

Where all other preparations have failed these preparations will always effect a cure. These insure rapid and extraordinary cure of severe recent and chronic cases of private diseases. They are used in the hospitals of Paris, by the celebrated Dr. Ricard, and found greatly superior to all hitherto known mineral remedies and Copal and Cubers. The injection is used in recent, and capsules more chronic cases.

This Institution accepts proposals at the rates of premium applicable to Europe, which on examination will be found more advantageous than those charged by other Offices having Agencies here. It unites all the advantages of a Mutual Association with the security of a Proprietary Company. The Participation Branch is conducted by the Proprietors of the Company for a charge of 10 per cent. on the premiums, without any other deduction whatever. Thus the assured enjoy the profit without the liability of the Mutual System.

The participation in profits has been most liberal! Should claims arise before the next investigation, a prospective bonus of nearly 1 1/2 per cent. is allotted.
